S-E-C-R-E-T On 3 February 1953, a military train loaded with antitank guns and two tanks traveled from Rudolfstadt [Rudolstadt Thueringen] to Neu Bukov/Mark [in Mecklenburg]. Several military trains have been run lately from Erfurt and Weimar [in Thueringen] in the direction of Bezirk [administrative unit replacing Laender] Halle. For the past 14 days [sometime in January or February], Soviet troops have been moving on trucks and trains from Thueringen to Mecklenburg. They are exclusively motorized troops, which must have been assigned a special job.

The Socialist Unity Party has tripled its cadre within the Reichsbahn for closer control of the population.

are controlling and searching railroad passengers on trains.
